描述

Ultimate Solo Violin

Chris Hein Solo Violin is an amazingly realistic multi-sampled instrument that's ideal for jazz, gypsy, or orchestral music. This is the violin you've been waiting for. It's versatile enough to handle any genre and always sounds totally authentic, whether deployed solo or in an ensemble. Conjure your inner Perlman or Ponty; from soft and serene to screaming loud, Chris Hein Solo Violin delivers flawless dynamic range, complete with natural-sounding transitions - and no audible artifacts. The library offers 10,000 samples, 38 articulations, and four different legato transitions, as well as proprietary phase-align techniques for perfect X-fade blending among up to eight dynamic layers.

Genius in the details

One of the reasons Chris Hein Solo Violin sounds so natural is that it lets you select - with just a single fader - from a mind-boggling 102 distinct attack shapes using its unique Note Head function. Furthermore, the software's onboard convolution reverbs let you define a natural-sounding performance space. Chris Hein Solo Violin's DSP effects rack gives you unrestricted freedom in processing your violin sound. Trust Sweetwater - you'll be blown away by the sheer detail, expression, and functionality of Chris Hein Solo Violin.
